About twelve o'clock iast night Carlies was visited by a destructive fire, which originated in a new building opposite the Mercury office. This building and seven or eight structures adjoining were totally destroyed, including Peal & Chapell's dry goods store, Atair's and Fritis' drug stores. Mrs. Dallas, in escaping from one of the burning houses was obliged to jump from the second story with a child in her arms. For tunntly neither was hurt, as they were caught in a Seather bed held below for the purpose.

The office of the County Clerk caught for ealso, but the flannes were put out before any serious damage was done. The loss is estimated at about $5,000, nearly, all of which is covered by insurance. One of the fire companies from Paris arrived by a special train and rendered good service. The fire was finally extinguished about eight o'clock this morning.
